JAPANESE CHAMPION WAGYU GRADE A5/BMS10+ MIYAZAKIGYU

"We use A5 Miyazakigyu"

Miyazakigyu is cattle that is born in Miyazaki prefecture, raised by Miyazaki producers. It has received the National Wagyu Award three consecutive times and is also very well-known name and quality.

The characteristics of Miyazakigyu are:

- Outstanding meat quality, nominated "Japan's Number One Beef" in "Wagyu Olympics".
- Only meat graded 4 and above by the Japan Meat Grading Association can be called Miyazakigyu.
- Great marbling, evenly distributed of fats and tender texture.

Wagyu is called different names depending on where cattle grow. For instance, Kobe Beef from Hyogo Prefecture, Matsuzaka Beef housed in Mie Prefecture and Omi Beef raised in Shiga Prefecture. Their stud bulls are originally from Miyazaki Prefecture, the home of Miyazakigyu located in Kyusyu Region. In fact, Kyushu region is actually the place where best Wagyu is from.

Wagyu Olympic is held once every five years. It is Japan's national competitive exhibition of Wagyu. In 2012, the 10th Olympic was held, and the winner was Miyazakigyu from Miyazaki Prefecture. Most astonishingly, it has won the championship for second time straight(2007, 2012). Besides, Miyazakigyu won Prime Minister Award in the national competition for the best meat quality and condition three times in a row (2007, 2012 an 2017).
